

A Father's Legacy
By Matthew Brown

My father was is and always will be
An invincible statue of heroism and cavalry
He never fails to show his love for me.
His arms are my shelter and felicity

Won't take a miss to greet you today
For the rest of my days, I'll honor you, dad
I promise to keep you proud and glad.

Even Though You're In Paradise
I'll fulfill The promise You Wrote me
To Be the Man You Always Wanted Me to Be A Young Educated Smart Black Man

That you dreamed I'd be
I am Continuing With School
With the Goal of Becoming The Doctor
That We Visioned I'd Be

After all the pain and rain
And the time we've spent together
Seeing you go was Harder than Ever
Years go by and now I know
The Legacy that you left was for me to grow
